Andrew Prilliman Joins Our Team

After an extensive interview process, we are excited to welcome Andrew Prilliman as the new Director of Marketing and Communications for Christian Legacy Foundation.

Andrew grew up 30 minutes outside of Tampa in Zephyrhills, FL where he came to know Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior in 1995. After high school, Andrew joined the Marine Corps Reserve and made a tour in Iraq in 2003. He was honorably discharged as a Platoon Sergeant in 2008.

During his time in the reserve, Andrew earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a major in Marketing from the University of South Florida and soon began working as a business broker with The Venture Group in Hyde Park. Through the process of brokering businesses, Andrew got a great deal of experience in the marketing and selling of his services, as well as the businesses in his inventory.

Two weeks ago Andrew married Meggan Mabry who he met through the singles ministry at their church, South Tampa Fellowship. There, Andrew leads a men's small group, is very active with the singles and middle school ministries and is leading a mission trip down the Amazon River in Brazil with Amazon Outreach in February. Andrew is a member of the Rotary Club of Tampa and is very active with the Children's Home and IMatterToo, an organization that shares Christ with children in group and foster homes.

The Christian Legacy Foundation (CLF) exists to enable faithful stewards to give wisely to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

CLF is the Tampa Bay area affiliate of the National Christian Foundation.

A Compassionate Woman

by Gordon MacDonald for Generous Giving
"[A wife of noble character] opens her arms to the poor" (Proverbs 31:20).

In an ancient world where male dominance pervaded so much of the culture, Proverbs 31 is a refreshing description of a remarkable woman who rivals any nobleman mentioned elsewhere. As we anticipate that women will learn well the principles often ascribed to godly men, so here we assume that men will understand that they have something to learn from a godly woman.

Could You Give One Million Dollars?

exerpt from The Treasure Principle by Randy Alcorn
Scott Lewis attended a conference where Bill Bright challenged people to give one million dollars to help fulfill the great commission. This amount was laughable to Scott - far beyond anything he could imagine since his machinery business was generating an income of under fifty thousand dollars a year.

Bill asked, "How much did you give last year?" Scott felt pretty good about his answer: "We gave seventeen thousand dollars, about 35 percent of our income."

Without blinking an eye, Bill responded, "Over the next year, why don't you make a goal of giving fifty thousand dollars?" Scott thought Bill hadn't understood. That was more than he had made all year! But Scott and his wife decided to trust God with Bill's challenge, asking Him to do the impossible. God provided in amazing ways. With a miraculous December 31 provision, the Lewises were able to give the fifty thousand dollars. Again, God provided.

In 2001 Scott had passed the one-million-dollar mark in their giving. The best part is that they aren't stopping. That's what it means to excel at giving.

Question of the Month

It is natural for us to think about what we give up by giving. Do you ever think about what you give up by not giving?

A Laugh A Day...

Pay Attention!

I used to work at an office where birthday greeting cards were passed around at least once a week. When the card reached me, I'd quickly scribble down a message and pass it on ASAP. One day, a co-worker (and friend) told me that I might want to pay more attention to when signing cards, since the one that had most recently made the rounds was not a birthday card but rather a sympathy card for a co-worker whose parent had recently died. In it, I had written, "Hope it's a great one!"
